Things to Know

- Dogs are permitted in the flat but not in the main Centre.
- Deliveries of food can be arranged from either Tesco or ASDA online and Aviemore 6 miles north has a range of supermarket options. Kingussie the same distance south has a Co-op. The village has no shop now, but a lovely Café/Gallery just 5 mins walk away and Loch Insh Watersports a 15 min walk away, with stunning views, also serves food. The Suie pub is just round the corner.
- All bedlinen is provided and the beds are already made up. All you require to bring are your own towels. In the kitchen tea towels, cloths, washing up liquid and surface spray are provided.
- We encourage the use of re-fillable water flasks to minimise plastic waste.
- There is a screen, digital projector, keyboard, amplifier, flipchart stand, TV, radio /CD player music stand/lectern available to borrow.
- In the winter the car park can be covered very quickly with snow and so it is advisable to carry shovel/hessian /windscreen scrapers to assist any necessary snow removal before setting off each day.
- Groups might wish to take out insurance to cover any cost in the event of cancellation.
